

STOCKMAN • O'CONNOR • CONNORS

Stockman O'Connor Connors serves its client base with the enthusiasm of a startup organization and the expertise of a combined century of litigation experience among its partners. Our practice is devoted to representing clients in complex litigation, with particular emphasis on representing hospitals, insurance carriers, physicians, nurses, pharmacists, and other entities and individuals in the health care industry.

We litigate disputes in state and federal court, and we represent clients in administrative matters involving federal, state and local agencies. With offices in Bridgeport and Southbury, we are able to efficiently serve clients throughout Connecticut, and we have earned a statewide reputation as aggressive and reliable defense counsel for clients facing significant financial exposure.
